The Next Steps in our IPS journey

Our IPS School Council Constitution has now been officially gazetted. The next step in the journey is to elect the elected members of the Council. The Council will have 8 members in total. The Principal and P&C Chair are automatic members (called official members) and there are two staff representatives (elected by the staff) and 2 parent representatives (elected by the P&C). These elections are quite formal, requiring nomination and a secret ballot. I hope to have this process underway in the next few weeks.

The remaining two members are appointed by the Council on the basis that the appointees have a particular skillset or knowledge base which can contribute to the school achieving further the goals.

More information will be forthcoming soon.

Social Media – use by pre-teen and young teenage children.

There is any amount of evidence and information being circulated about the inadvisability or downright dangers attached to exposing pre-teens and young teenagers to social media. Time and again we hear of sad outcomes attributed to cyber-bullying, of abusive and frightening incidents involving youngsters and of the exposure of children to undesirables. However, as parents we believe that these situation won’t confront our children because ‘they only talk to their friends from school’, or ‘we only use it to talk to grandma’, or ‘it’s the way they keep in touch with our friends in WA’ etc. etc.. Patently that just isn’t the total situation.

If your child has access to social media at a primary school age, and if you do not rigorously and knowledgably supervise and participate in their use of social media, it’s more likely than not that your child will be a victim or even a perpetrator of one of the social media pitfalls.

Researchers have come to the realisation that children as young as 3-4 are using social media without supervision so it has become a ‘fact of life’ for us all. This is not some other community either, in our community more than half the children from yr 3/ 4 upwards are regular users of Facebook, Instagram, Snapchat or Kik. While these apps are innocuous in themselves, it’s the way they can be used that we as parents need to be on top of.

The Meet the creeps cybersafety website encourages parents and students in the middle years to become aware of online scams, social media pitfalls and cyberbullying so they can stay safe online. http://www.creepquiz.eq.edu.au/

Things you need to know if your child has access to Social Media platforms -

Most of these platforms require a child to be at least 12 years old, however there is no way for the provider to verify ages, and in fact many of the children are using these platforms with parental knowledge and permission.

There is any amount of research available to indicate that many children do not yet have the maturity to manage interactions with others when the communication is as instantaneous, impersonal and accessible as social media platforms provide. The usual filters and guides to communication are absent in these platforms, so that children see them as an effective means to voice their views but do not understand the implications of doing this in a one dimensional environment. Facial expressions, voice intonations, general body language etc. are not part of social media messages or chat and thus children have far fewer clues and insights into the intent and meaning of communications. Conflict, abusive and inappropriate remarks, aggressive threats and extremely profane language as well as bullying and intimidating behaviours are not uncommon in this environment.

Platform: Instagram:

Instagram is a free app which can be downloaded on Android or Apple (IOS) devices - tablets, Ipads, phones and even computers.

Operation: Photo based but may contain and be a vehicle for comments. Each user has a profile. If this is not set to ‘private’ then the user account is completely unrestricted. When set to ‘private’, a user must ‘accept’ another person as a ‘follower’ to enable their access to the person’s ‘profile’. There is also a chat facility for those in the private group. Similarly to Twitter, users can have ‘followers’ and also be ‘following’ others. A closed group chat facility is available in the message tab.

Comments on posted photos are limited to limited to the photo caption and only the most recent are shown directly. Others can only be seen by selecting ‘view x more comments’.

Things to look out for:

The platform is completely open to anyone in the world unless the profile is set to ‘private’. There is no restriction on language used on the comments/chat nor on the ability to ‘search’ for others using Instagram. There is also no restriction on the nature of the material being posted.
To monitor a child’s use and to try to make usage as safe as possible you must:

1. The child needs to be at least 12 although this is not able to be enforced.

2. The user’s profile must be set to ‘private’.

3. The parent must be accepted by the child as a ‘follower’ to have access to the profile, i.e. to see what the child has posted, however remember that a follower can be ‘blocked’ at any time. If you are not accepted then you will not have access to the profile which means that you cannot see what is being communicated.

4. Posts (i.e. activity on Instagram) by people you are ‘following’ are automatically advised to all followers, but you will not necessarily receive a notification. Posts generally appear in the ‘Newsfeed’ which lists the activity around the last 24 hrs by all people you are following.

5. Hashtags may be attached to a message. These are searchable by anyone in the world irrespective of ‘friend’ status.

6. You will need to set up a regular monitoring of the person/child you are following to ensure that you can see all their posts. This will need to be once each 24 hr timeframe on the ‘Newsfeed’ or you can go directly to the child’s profile to see their posts.

7. You will also need to look at the content /context /subject material of the photos and the text and at the comments /chat made or received to understand the full context of the interaction.

8. Sometimes the language is symbolic which can lead to conflict. If you don’t understand what symbols are being used, try using ‘Google ‘to identify the symbol.

Platform: Snapchat:
As for Instagram but with this works on Android or IOS devices.

Operation: Has capability to send photo to allowed ‘friends’, but also includes chat capability and both video and audio calls to ‘friends’. While ‘friends’ have to be ‘allowed’, the app will link to email contacts and distribution lists.

Users can also set up a ‘story’ which lasts up to 24 hrs, the usual post has only a maximum 10 second duration. Conversations however, seem to be able to last until actually opened by the recipient. It is possible to have a ‘hidden’ message conversation.

9. The child needs to be at least 12 although this is not able to be enforced.

10. The user’s settings must be set to be as ‘private’ as possible.
11. The parent must be accepted by the child as a ‘friend’ i.e. to see what the child has posted, though if a snap is sent to a particular ‘friend’ and not put up as a ‘story’ it won’t be seen except by the recipient and will disappear after a maximum of 10 seconds if you are not accepted as a ‘friend’ then you will not have access to the profile which means that you cannot see what is being communicated.

12. You will need to set up a regular monitoring of the person/child you are following to ensure that you can see their posts. This will need to be very frequent and consistent.

13. You will also need to look at the content /context /subject material of the photos and the text and at the comments /chat made or received to understand the full context of the interaction.

14. Sometimes the language is symbolic which can lead to conflict. If you don’t understand what symbols are being used, try using ‘Google ‘to identify the symbol.

If you have any Cyber Safety tips or comments please let us know.

Camping Gone Wrong
The sun is turning red. Trees are fading away and great big rocks are tumbling down to the ground. There’s a volcano and it’s about to explode! Lava is burning everything in its path. Before this big mess happened, my Dad and I were asleep. Dad heard a big noisy sound and woke up. He went outside to see what it was and shouted, “Get up now! We need to run away from here!” I asked why and he shouted, “To survive!!” We dashed away as fast as we could but it all suddenly stopped. It was gone as quick as a flash!
Ava, Year 2

The Fire
The sun is up and I am up. But there is a bush fire and it is strong! I can’t handle it any longer! I quickly grabbed a long piece of wood and I threw it on the bush fire. The fire stopped and we went, “Hurray! Hurray!” It stopped! Luckily it will never come back again. We had so much fun after that.
Jerikah, Year 1

Campfire
“Dad! Look at the fish! You put the fish in the fire!” The fire was going all over the place. They ran into the tent. The tent fell down. “Now where do we go now?” said the boy. “I don’t know,” said Dad. The boy had an idea……
Ollie, Year 1

The Giant Fire
Fire burns. The colourful flames go out of control and heads towards the tent. The tent explodes and before Tom knows what is going on, he is surrounded by flames rich with colour. Tom’s dad has to put out the flames or the tent will be nothing more than smithereens. The whole forest is set on fire and the trees are falling to their death. The forest was years old so it was time for them to die.
Thomas, Year 2
Our Junior Performance Dance Team performed the dance “Feeling Hot Hot Hot” at the Sunshine Plaza last Saturday as part of the local Breakthru competition. The judges will select one group from the heats and the public vote will put another school team into the finals.

Congratulations Allira, Naima, April, Pia, Chloe B, Kayla, Hannah, Miller and Ava (who was not able to make it)

The judges were certainly impressed with our costumes, (thank you Mrs McCrae) our stage presence and our choreography.

A big thank you to Mrs Osborne who has spent many hours organising the girls’ performance.
On Friday children in the Junior and Senior choirs participated in choral workshops with a visiting accompanist on the piano. It was a great time as they prepared for their Sunshine Coast Eisteddfod performance coming up in early August.

Keep singing and practising your songs!

GLENVIEW STUDENTS DO US PROUD

Congratulations Shilah and Emily. On Friday 31st May Shilah and Emily participated in the Regional Cross Country Trials. Emily came in 11th and Shilah 16th out of 45. It was a very fast race but our girls weren't too far behind the leaders. Well done girls!

On Thursday 9th June Jake and Emily travelled to Stanthorpe to participate in the Sunshine Coast Regional School Football State Championships. The kids played well and had an awesome time. Such a great experience.

If your child/ren have participated in an event you would like to share, send me in a photo and a short passage.
On the 30th May Glenview State School band participated in the Fanfare, a competition that competed against the bands of Bli Bli School and Nambour. With only one practise together before the competition they played excellent and earned a silver award! Well done to all the members of our band, Keelan, Ella, Josh, Harry, Ben, Jarrah and Rylee.

Also a special thanks to Mrs Allan our instrumental Music teacher.
